Dedication

*Have enjoyed our

Message

"What we like determines what we are,
and is the sign of what we are; and to teach taste is inevitably to form character" - Ruskin

With sincerity and appreciation, we, the Class of 1955, dedicate this edition of The Pirate Log to Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Keithley. Mr. Keithley's guidance has helped in the formation of memories which happily end our high school career.
Our goals have been reached because of the understanding help of our efficient librarian, Mildred Keithley.

Sharon Higgins, Secretary

Irvin W. Spencer
Principal Superintendent

Throughout the years ahead we will look at these pages with pleasure. The experiences and associations of our school days will return in fond memory. We will view these pictures and read felicitations of our classmates and our pulses will quicken with emotion. We will remember our friends of school years and find that many of them are still close to us. Let me say with Shakespear-----"Those friends thou hast and their adoption tried grapple them, to thy soul with hoops of steel."

Irvin W. Spencer

Dear Geo.,
I have enjoyed working with you and look forward to next year's association. Good luck to you,
Ever your friend, Spencer,

Dear George,

It's been good to have you in seminary.
You've been a good student. I look forward to having you again. God bless you in the meantime.

School Board

Sincerely,
Brother Lane

Willard Bell; Clancy Byrne; Emlin Mays; Nounda Merrill, Chairman;
Jack McAfee; Irvin W. Spencer, Superintendent;

The Communistic threat from without and the anti-democratic feelings from within constitute a challenge to our way of life.
The American people are at one of the major cross-roads of their history.
Whether they can strengthen their devotion to democracy will depend largely upon their faith, their resourcefulness, and their good judgment.
These qualities may be cultivated and enhanced by education.
The words of Thomas Jefferson are as true today as they were when written "If a nation expects to be ignorant and free in a state of civilization it expects what never was and never will be."

VOYAGE OF '55

The Pirate Ship was ready, to the winds its sails were flung,
The flag of skull and crossbones from the highest mast was hung.
On the deck the crew stood watchful as they gazed out o'er the sea,
For they sailed a mighty mission, that of winning a victory.

The Captain of the hardy crew, a tall young man and bold,
Was Pirate David Ackerman whose fame had been far told.
He had with him the finest crew a Captain e'er could ask,
The bravest lads in all the land were there to do his task.

The Captain stood before them with watchful eye and steady,
He cleared his throat, and said, "Now, men, we are ready.
The seas ahead are wild and rough, other ships we must defeat.
Hence, a word of caution to ye all before the foe we meet.

Now Daugherty, on the cannon keep a steady aim and true,
Don't get excited and shoot blindly or such action you will rue.
And Reynolds in the crow's nest, look sharply there and here,
You must warn your crewmates if danger doth appear.

Sims and Johnson on the foredeck, keep your swords sharp and free,
We may engage in combat and will have great need of thee.
Now Hiller, Sohn, and Jardine, stand by with loaded guns,
No matter who the opponent, we will not turn and run.

Mays, Andreason, and Morris, be ready just in case,
For if fate o'er takes a shipmate, him you must replace.
Now, men, a steady heart be yours, a steady eye and hand,
That as we sail to meet the foe we fight with all we can."

The Captain finished speaking and turned to go below,
When suddenly a cheer was heard which rang both high and low.
From the lifeboat crawled a pirate who had stowed himself away,
For he had known his crew was leaving and hidden there that day.

'Twas Pirate Larry Barnes who'd been wounded on last trip,
But he would not stay behind, so he'd stowed aboard the ship.
From the shores came sounds of shouting and the band played music gay,
As Butte High School cheered their pirates on to victory that day.

Dear George,
 It is most joyous
 to be associated with you in school. Personality that is engaging, ability that is stimulating, ambition that is commendable - these are some of your selling points. Capitalize on them.
